

Michael Driscoll

Front-end & WordPress Developer

statement.

My background in front-end development, WordPress theme development, UI design, and e-Commerce development gives me a unique perspective on the elements of a complete website experience. As a designer and developer, I am dedicated to deliver the most effective solutions for every type of website at the highest of web standards.

I am co-founder of ModernThemes where I dig into WordPress as a theme developer, and own and operate an e-Commerce website at getthegrove.com.
